Partnerships

Our remarkable promise...

We help charities to build and deliver ambitious corporate partnerships.

Tell me more

“When our biggest corporate partner was acquired by a Norwegian company, we thought our income would take a huge hit. Through our work with Remarkable Partnerships, we’ve actually been able to grow the partnership – securing a two million pound pledge. We’ve also built a movement of companies pledging to End the Darkness and our pipeline is fit to burst”.

Richard Turner, SolarAid Director of Fundraising

Do any of these three situations apply to your charity?

You don't have any corporate partners, so you are starting with a blank page.

You have some corporate partners, but you feel like you've lost momentum.

You have a strong corporate partnerships programme, but know that in order to achieve significant growth you need to change your approach.

If so, Remarkable Partnerships can help.

We deliver your purpose through The Remarkable Way

Purpose

We help you identify the ways corporate partners can help you beyond just raising money.

Pitch

We build your powerful pitch - ensuring senior business leaders engage with your cause emotionally whilst seeing the commercial benefit you can offer.

Prospects

We identify your priority industries and top prospects, ensuring you focus on quality prospects that share your purpose.

Partners

We help you optimise your existing partnership portfolio.

People

We work with you to build an internal partnerships culture, ensuring all relevant colleagues feel involved.

Process

We make sure the right systems and processes are in place to deliver successful corporate partnerships and avoid wasting time.

Performance

We help you build your corporate partnerships strategy and measure success through key performance indicators.

We help you get the most out of your corporate partnerships

Kickstart

You don't have any corporate partners, so you are starting with a blank page.

Imagine yourself in a year:

You have the confidence, skills and tools to build the corporate partnerships your cause deserves. More importantly, you have secured your first corporate partners and more are on the way.

Upgrade

You have some corporate partners, but you feel like you've lost momentum.

Imagine yourself in a year:

You feel fired up and excited about your potential. You're getting the results you dreamed of and the whole organisation is ignited by corporate partnerships.

Transform

You have a strong corporate partnerships programme but know that in order to achieve significant growth you need to change your approach.

Imagine yourself in a year:

You have identified a smarter way of working, so you are delivering more impact for less effort. You have a higher quality pipeline which is helping you secure ambitious partnerships.

“Working with Remarkable Partnerships has been game-changing. We have embraced the power of storytelling, honed our focus and our trustees are sharing their contacts. In the first six months of our work, we secured a new partnership worth £540,000”.

Fiona Ashcroft, Alder Hey CEO
