

Relationship Fundraising

A donor-based approach to the business of raising money

564 pages | 8x10 | full colour

“If you haven’t read the original, you must read this. You just must! No other book on fundraising comes close to Ken Burnett’s latest.”

—Giles Pegram, CBE

Third Edition

Original text extensively updated with 15 new special features.

Ken Burnett’s reworking of his timeless classic is finally available to a new generation of fundraisers who recognize the power of relationships in a donor-based approach to the business of raising money.

In this new edition you’ll learn:

- The concept of the support experience
- The way in which donors should choose what they receive
- The importance of investing in fundraising
- The significant emotional benefits of giving
